Voting Contest of the Coming Fair.

Following are the leading features of the voting contests of the coming Church Fair:

One handsome, hand painted, satin sofa pillow, the gift of one of Bisbee's leading artists; to be voted to the most popular gentleman in Bisbee.

Two silver spoons, presented by a pioneer of Bisbee; to be voted to the most popular gentleman in Bisbee, over fifty years of age.

Three famous "Dolls"—First, second and third prizes. The first prize is a magnificent specimen, thirty-two inches tall and dressed in white satin bridal costume; second and third prizes are of proportionate value.

One quilt—Log Cabin Quilt—lined with pink brocade silk, contains thirty block seventeen names to the block, including that of the governor of Arizona, also the governor of New Mexico, as well as the names of over five hundred, (great and small) citizens of Bisbee, Tombstone and Benson. This certainly will be a valuable prize to the fortunate winner.

The contest is open to all; one dime represents a vote. Those desiring to enter these contests must give their names to some member of the Ladies' Aid Society. Votes may be solicited from now until the last evening of the Fair; contests to close at 9:30 p. m.

A Description.

The Range News has the following description of the body found in the Sulphur Spring valley, mention of which was made in the Oas columns:

"The man was about 5 feet 10 inches in height and would weigh in life about 170 pounds. The hair was light brown, inclined to sandy. The mustache was not heavy and sandy in color. The face also had about a two weeks' growth of beard. Complexion light. He appeared to be about thirty years of age. The nose was not marked by which the identity of the body could be established, except that the middle finger of the right hand had a defective nail, probably from the effects of a felon. This finger was removed and kept for purpose of identification. Dr. Aiton thought the man had been dead about six weeks."

Was it Indians?

Theodore Hampe, who resides near Rucker, sends us the annexed rather startling intelligence:

"During Tuesday night the wires of my pasture fence were cut and five horses stolen, one of the remaining animals being wounded. Two of the stolen horses broke away and returned the following afternoon, but the thieves got away with the other three. Followed the tracks through very rough and steep ground to the head of Price canyon, the trail evidently leading into San Simon valley. On the trail found one horse killed and meat cut off Indian fashion, two strips from the neck, ribs from one side and part of the hip. Near the horse were Indian tracks. It seems that two or three Indians were the thieves.—Range News.

Notice to Friends and the Public.

Being compelled, on account of my professional engagements, to be in attendance upon the District Court during its sitting in Tombstone, commencing on the 4th day of December, 1899, I will gladly attend to any business friends or the public may have in any of the departments of the county government or in Tombstone. I will leave here for Tombstone (the county seat) on the 2d or 3d of December. Any person desiring to see me before I leave will find me in my office on O. K. street, or at my residence, the "Brophy Cottage," Howell avenue, back of the Hotel Bessemer. CHARLES GRANVILLE JOHNSTON, Attorney at Law.

As a cure for rheumatism Chamberlain's Pain Balm is gaining a wide reputation. D. R. Johnston, of Richmond, Ind., has been troubled with that ailment since 1862. In speaking of it he says: "I never found anything that would relieve me until I used Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I feel like magic with me. My foot was swollen and painful very much, but one good application of Pain Balm relieved me. For sale by all druggists. D
